Examiner Ramsey reported on the entry level and later Firefighter/Paramedic testing that was just conducted. There were 42 applicants and 32 took the written test. 17 of those and one lateral candidate went through the physical test; two people failed the physical test. The remaining 16 candidates were interviewed and the ones that passed were placed on the presented hiring list, with the remaining candidate from the last test.

Chief Lackey is requesting permission to hold a Police Officer test because the Department is anticipating an opening. The current list has eight candidates on it and expires in June. The Chief would like to be proactive and ready to hire once there is a vacancy.
